RE: Speaking Invitation
 Northwest Criminal Intelligence Network
 Portland, Oregon
 July 1989

Jonathan P. Cox, President of the Northwest Criminal Intelligence Network, has invited you to be the keynote speaker at the Network's next major international meeting in July 1989. The date in July is left open to accommodate your schedule.

The Northwest Criminal Intelligence Network consists of 109 intelligence officers from Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Idaho, and California, who represent 37 federal, state, county, and local law enforcement agencies. Meetings are held three times a year to share information on criminal intelligence.

Since you normally do the 8th Circuit in July, and you already have a heavy spring schedule, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, a letter of regret is attached for your signature.

Dear Mr. Cox:

Thank you for your invitation to be the keynote speaker at the Northwest Criminal Intelligence Network meeting in Portland next July. The unpredictability of my schedule for the coming year is such that I cannot make a commitment for that period of time.

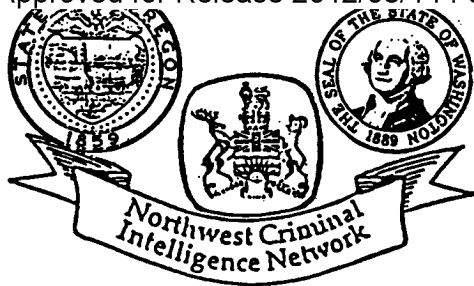

The premise of sharing criminal intelligence is a good one and I commend you on the work of your organization. I wish you and the other members of the Network a very successful meeting.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster
